

Opportunity: Significant business growth across the farming, food and engineering divisions of the Carrs Group.

Action: Group strategy development, individual business unit planning and provision of support and facilitation at board and senior management level.

Outcome: A coherent business strategy presented to city investors and customers.

“Having worked with the guys from EFPF for several years I know they can get under the skin of a business and help move things forward.”

Tim. J. Davies
Group Chief Executive,
Carr's Group PLC.
